

SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF RIVERSIDE

~NOTICE~

DATE: February 15, 2011
TO: Attorneys, Legal Professionals, and Attorney Services
RE: Changes to the Court's Parent Orientation Program
APPLICABILITY: Countywide

The manner in which the Parent Orientation Program (POP) is offered is changing for Riverside Superior Court. Effective immediately, in-person attendance of the Parent Orientation Program will cease and parties will be directed to complete an on-line Parent Orientation Program. The on-line Parent Orientation Program can be completed from one of the following websites:

- www.uptoparents.org – this program is for parents who were married
- www.proudtoparent.org – this program is for parents who were not married

Parties will be instructed to bring their certificate of completion of the on-line Parent Orientation class to their mediation appointment. Efforts are currently being made to provide computer access at the local courts for those parties who do not have computers at home.

Questions regarding the changes to the Parent Orientation Program can be directed to:

Lisa Morris, Mediation Services Manager, at 951-955-5973 or via email at Lisa.Morris@riverside.courts.ca.gov; or

Carrie Snuggs, Family Law & Juvenile Director, at 951-955-1533 or via email at Carrie.Snuggs@riverside.courts.ca.gov

Thank You.
